

HUMORS OF THE DAY.

THE nobbiest thing in boots is a bunion.

SONG of the cheese—"Will you love me when I mould?"

A STOCKHOLDER in a street railway company—the driver.

THE proof of the pudding is the rapidity with which the children get away with it.

"WELL, I'll be bound," as the man remarked when he heard quoted the lines, "Chains of gold are fetters still."

A MAN who "traveled on his shape" insulted a young lady, and her father knocked him down and traveled on his shape, too—walked all over him.

THAT little girl unwittingly gave utterance to the principles of many of her elders when she wrote in her composition: "We should make mistakes and tell lies as seldom as it is convenient."

GIRLS should be careful how they are vaccinated with virus taken from a lover's arm. One at St. Paul has taken to swearing, sitting cross-legged, and smoking a brier root pipe.—Detroit Free Press.

MR. BROWN wants to punish the liquor drinker as well as the liquor seller. Fogg says he will go a step beyond Mr. Brown. He wants the liquor itself punished and he is willing to punish all he can of it.—Boston Transcript.

"PA," ASKED Fogg's hopeful, the other evening, "what kind of combs do you use to curry chickens with?" "Cox-combs," replied Fogg, promptly. Fogg says he believes in always answering a child when you can.—Boston Transcript.

"No," SAID Gallagher, "I don't keep a bull-dog because I want a dog to fight. I'd rather give $50 than have my dog fight. But by Judas, I do like the satisfaction of feeling that he can chew the stuffing out of any blame dog that comes along."

"ALAS, we must part," as the coat-tails said when the street-car passenger took his seat. "But we'll meet again," as the coat-tails said when three fat women got aboard. "United we stand," as the coat-tails said "for the rest of the ride."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

THEY tell of a man out West who was putting a blast in a well, and it went off prematurely and blew him out into an apple tree about fifty feet away. In a moment he recovered himself, and remarking, "The Lord knows better than I do after all; I guess it is almost time to go pruning," took a large pruning knife from his pocket and set to work.

FUN at a dinner party: The youngest gentleman (it is his first visit) has broken the ice at last by inquiring the name of the hostess' little daughter, to which the child has replied "Ethel." "And why, Ethel, do you keep patting me on the arm?" "Because mamma says your a muf!"—(awful pause, during which the child strokes him down)—"but you don't feel like one, you know." [Tableau: child complacent—nobody else.]—Judy.

A Fair Average.

The Oil City Derrick has heard so many stories about narrow escapes, thrilling incidents and strange coincidences during the late war, that it begins to think the whole number of truthful anecdotes of this kind must be pretty near exhausted. It would certainly seem as though they had all been told, and what are now being related are for newspaper purposes; but we don't know. There were a good many instances in the late war where somebody came very near having a narrow escape, but missed, and he is now fertilizing Southern soil. There were also lots of what would have been strange coincidences, but they did not quite make the carom; and there were thrilling incidents that nobody knows anything about, for sufficient reasons. No; we guess it is hardly time yet to stop relating new anecdotes of the late war. Those that are now being related may be bald faced fabrications, and we presume many of them are; but they will serve to supply the place of incidents that occurred of which no one was left to tell the tale, and upon the whole there will be a fair average.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

A Sure Cure Found at Last—No One Need Suffer!

A sure cure for blind, bleeding, itching and ulcerated piles has been discovered by Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment. A single box has cured the worst chronic cases of twenty-five or thirty years standing. No one need suffer five minutes after applying this wonderful soothing medicine. Lotion instruments and electricities do more harm than good. Williams' Ointment absorbs the tumors, allays the intense itching, (particularly at night after getting warm in bed,) acts as a poultice, gives instant and painless relief, and is prepared only for piles, itching of the private parts, and nothing else.

Read what the Hon. J. M. Coffinberry, of Cleveland, says about Dr. Williams' Pile Ointment: "I have used scores of pile cures, and it affords me pleasure to say that I have never found anything which gave me such immediate and permanent relief as Dr. Williams' Indian Ointment."

SKIN DISEASE.

F. Drake, Esq., Cleveland, O., suffered beyond all description from a skin disease which appeared on his hands, head and face, and nearly destroyed his eyes. The most careful doctoring failed to help him, and after all had failed he used Dr. Frazier's Magic Ointment and was cured by a few applications.

Dr. Frazier's Root Bitters.

Frazier's Root Bitters are not a dram-shop whisky beverage, but are strictly medicinal in every sense. They act strongly upon the liver and kidneys, keep the bowels open and regular, make the weak strong, heal the lungs, build up the nerves and cleanse the blood and system of every impurity.

For dizziness, rush of blood to the head tending to apoplexy, dyspepsia, fever and ague, dropsy, pimples and blotches, scrofulous humors and sores, tetter, ring worm, white swelling, erysipelas, sore eyes and for young men suffering from weakness or debility caused from imprudence, and to females in delicate health, Frazier's Root Bitters are especially recommended.

Dr. Frazier: I have used two bottles of your Root Bitters for dyspepsia, dizziness, weakness and kidney disease, and they did me more good than the doctors and all the medicine I ever used. From the first dose I took I began to mend, and I am now in perfect health, and feel as well as I ever did. I consider your medicine one of the greatest blessings.
